Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8-10, 12-14 and 16-18 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on January 27, 2005 have been received and entered.

Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 12-14 and 16-18 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over Penn et al. and Yaacobi for the reasons set forth on pages 2-3 of the office action of September 27, 2004.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered but are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicant alleges criticality to the differences in concentrations and animal model of the prior art instead of human model of the instant application. The allegation is not well taken. Applicant is reminded that the rejection is an obviousness type rejection and not anticipation. Animal models are routinely used as preliminary study models for human use. The determination of optimum proportions or amounts and route of administration is considered to be within the skill of the artisan in the absence of evidence to the contrary. The use of a composition known for treating macular degeneration and use it for maintaining visual acuity associated with macular degeneration, inhibiting blood vessel growth associated with macular degeneration and inhibiting lesion growth associated with macular degeneration is considered to be the inherent property of such composition. Applicant has presented no evidence to establish the unexpected or unobvious nature of the claimed invention, and as such, the prior rejection sustains.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1618

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
